THEOLOGICAL REFLECTION

If you are ordained as deacon and priest you will promise: “I solemnly declare that I do believe the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments to be the Word of God, and to contain all things necessary to salvation.” What does this promise mean to you and how does it inform your ministry?

In your baptism you promised to “accept Jesus Christ as your savior,” to “trust in his grace and love” and to “follow and obey him as your Lord.” If you are ordained you will promise: “I do solemnly engage to conform to the doctrine, discipline, and worship of the Episcopal Church.” How do you understand these two promises in relationship to one another?

In the Service of Baptism and Confirmation the celebrant and people say this exchange “There is one Body and one Spirit; There is one hope in God’s call to us; One Lord, one Faith, one Baptism; One God and Father of all.” How does this help you to understand salvation in Jesus Christ?

If you are ordained as deacon and priest you will commit yourself to “proclaim by word and deed the Gospel of Jesus Christ and to fashion your life in accordance with its precepts.” How does such a commitment inform your leadership?

Explain to an “inquiring friend” the good news of God in Christ.
